

Policy of Ethical Conduct and Anti-Bribery

We are committed to conducting all business with integrity, honesty, and transparency. All employees, contractors, and business partners must act ethically and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Bribery, corruption, or any form of unethical conduct is strictly prohibited. No one shall offer, give, solicit, or accept any form of bribe, kickback, or improper payment in connection with our business activities.

Any violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment or contract, and legal consequences where applicable.
